

Camille DEHESTRU

Born in Creil (France) on 18 January 1991

French and Belgian nationality

Education

Sept. 2012 – June 2013	College of Europe, Bruges, Belgium Master in European Political and Administrative Studies (grade: good). InBev-Baillet Latour full scholarship. Specialisations: EU institutions, law and policies, regulatory procedures, civil society, lobbying and interest representation. Johnson & Johnson award for Best thesis on a consumer-related topic.
Sept. 2008 – June 2013	Sciences-Po Lille, France Master in European Affairs (grade: good). Bi-degree with the University of Kent.
Sept. 2012 – June 2013	University Lille 2, France Bachelor of Laws (LL.B.), Distance learning.
Sept. 2008 – June 2012	University of Kent, Canterbury, United-Kingdom Bachelor of Arts with Honours, Politics and International Relations Upper Second Class Honours Bi-degree with Sciences-Po Lille.

Current position

Consultant at PACT European Affairs since March 2014.

Professional experience

Oct 2013 – February 2014	Bluebook intern at the European Commission, DG Enterprise and Industry, - Support the EPAA (European Partnership for Alternative to Animal Testing)
--------------------------	---

Languages

French – Mother tongue
English – Professional proficiency
Spanish – Basic proficiency
Dutch – Basic proficiency

Hobbies

Travelling, fencing, baking.

---

Contact

Email: cd@pacteurope.eu

Mobile: +32 (0) 471 060 217

---